MISSISSIPPI.

ADDRESS OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION PARTY.

To the people of Mississippi:

Terrible evils, created by unwise legislation of Congress, threaten all our rights and interests, national social, civil, and political. More than two years have elapsed since the close of the war, and now, at a time when our people might, if not obstructed by hostile legislation, in a good degree restore prosperity, and contribute millions to the public Treasury, they are reduced, by the action of Congress, to a condition worse than ever before. Civil order is paralyzed by the sword, industry is demoralized. The sad complaint of suffering from want of bread is heard in this fruitful land, and robberies for food have already begun. Cotton, important as it is to the country as the support of the public credit, the medium of exchange, the bountiful contributor to the profits of commerce, and the great stimulant of industry, will be grown no more. In fact the policy of Congress has reduced our population to utter ruin. Congress has contrived for us the perpetuity of negro rule—the blind domination of barbarous ignorance, stimulated by the worst passions of men, and directed by reckless partizan adventurers.

By the will of an American Congress, these Southern States are foredoomed to become African provinces of the American Union—provinces in which we and our children are to be held in negro subjection, and into which no Northern man, no Union soldier, can enter except to become, like us, a victim to anarchy and ruin. The Union cause triumphed in the strife of arms; but the Union Congress, so-called, has practically decreed that this great South, saved to the Union by a countless loss of blood and treasure, shall become a negro oligarchy, and a dreary waste, incapable to contribute a dollar to the public Treasury—a dead weight, worse than worthless to the Union. No plan more efficient could be devised to create and perpetuate bitterness, and weaken and endanger the Union.

Under such a scheme, republican government and civil liberty are impossible. Professed Republicans now strive to commit the State of Mississippi to the control of a race of ignorant negroes, having a registered majority of 20,000 votes, manipulated by political adventurers from other States. Of the capacities of these freedmen to organize, develop, and restore to shape and control the destinies of a great State, and of the partisan purposes regarding them, let the late report of Gen. Grant bear witness:

"Their intelligence is not now sufficient to combine for the execution of their will: all their combinations are now controlled by white men under the protection of the military. If the protection is withdrawn, the white men now controlling would withdraw with it [illegible] so that the presence of a large military force will be required for some time to maintain the freedmen in the right of suffrage." Then these creatures, confessedly too ignorant even to combine for the execution of their will, are to be maintained as our nominal rulers, whilst manipulating strangers, "under the protection of the military," are to make combinations for them, and through them to govern the State. We have thus proposed for our acceptance an oligarchy maintained by military power.

Such a government would be a disgrace and ruin to any people. Every consideration of honor, and duty, and interest constrains us to oppose it. To accept it, is to ignore the Constitution, and the great principles of civil liberty it was ordained to perpetuate. Our duty to the freedmen, no less than our own interest, requires us to unite in earnest efforts to defeat this monstrous scheme of Mississippi government.

A State Convention of the Constitutional Union party will be held in the City of Jackson, on Wednesday, the 15th day of January next, for the purpose of thorough organization, consultation and action, and we earnestly invite all citizens of the State, who are in favor of peace and union under the Constitution, to send delegates to take counsel with us for the common good. Let no one delude himself with the hope of peace under a constitution which will transfer the power of the State to a dominant negro majority, by which it may be changed and debased at will. Let there be no halting because of past differences of opinions on politics. Let the recent past teach us all how imperative is the necessity for deliberate judgment, and for harmonious, united effort for a common deliverance.

We have every possible inducement for immediate action to combine in united, zealous labors. Never before was a people threatened with calamities so great as those now prepared for us and our brethren of the Southern States. We have all to gain by success, and nothing to lose by defeat; for the worst is already contrived for us in the abominable scheme against which we labor.

The Constitutional men of the North begin to understand the Southern people, and to appreciate the enormity of the scheme to enslave us. They begin to see that the success of the Congressional plan must subvert Constitutional union, and cause continuous increase of the public debt, with utter destruction to the national credit, to industry and to commerce. Already the popular majority in the last Presidential election has been overcome; and still, day by day, is the number of constitutional union men increasing. Negro suffrage is dead at the North, and that mighty people, which so scouted the mere name of the thing, will never permit the representatives of negroes to sit with them in council, to control the destinies of the nation.

In hope, therefore, let us united in common labors to restore the Constitution, establish civil order, create peace, restore prosperity, and perpetuate the Union.

Jackson, December 19, 1867.

THE GREAT QUESTION.

The great question then, is as to the status of the negro politically and socially, in this country. Shall the semi barbarous negro, just emancipated from slavery, hold the balance of power—nay, become the controlling power—in the republic? Shall this ignorant and brutal people—the lowest type of the human race—outweigh the votes of the white people and control the destiny of the republic? Shall the proud Caucasian race—the highest type of mankind—be put in subjection to a people little removed from barbarism? It is impossible. The mind of every white man or woman revolts at such an idea. It is contrary to nature, repugnant to their sense of decency, and utterly subversive of the whole political and social fabric of our country. Yet this is the great issue before the country. This is the question to be settled at the coming Presidential election. Who can doubt the result?

The issue is represented on one hand by our radical Congress and politicians. The whole framework of Congressional reconstruction is based on giving the negroes political power in the South, with a view of controlling the government. The object is to make three or four millions of barbarians a political element to rule the destinies of thirty millions of white people through the balance of power they would hold. All the hypocritical talking about humanity and mankind being free and equal is sheer nonsense. It is simply a question of political power with the radicals. On the other hand is the conservative, wise and consistent policy of President Johnson to restore the Union upon the basis of a white man's government, as it was originally established, and as every sensible man believes it should exist. He wishes to give every protection to the negroes under their new born liberty and every opportunity to elevate themselves in the scale of civilization. So do the masses of the white people, both North and South. But he is opposed to making these benighted people a controlling political element in the republic. He knows, as we all know, that this is utterly repugnant and would be dangerous. He knows that this would lead to great social evils.—The negroes, with political power in their hands in the South, would soon insist upon social equality and pass laws to bring that about. The leading blacks in and out of the Southern conventions talk boldly of this. The negro men want white wives, and are looking forward to such a result of their newly acquired position.—Over two years the President has stood firmly and boldly on this vital issue against a Radical Congress. He, therefore, is the representative of the principle which is now going before the country. His message and conduct constitute the only platform on which the Conservatives can conduct the Presidential contest. He has, by great sagacity and remarkable firmness, overthrown the Radicals, and he is now master of the situation. He cannot be ignored, for he and his policy form the controlling object of the coming political revolution. He must either be the candidate or make one. All side issues and men become insignificant before the great issue of which he is and must be the central figure. N. Y. Herald.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 9, 1868

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on THURSDAY, the 30th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The conditions of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER,
Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

IT IS ONE OF THE developments of human nature, that notoriety is much more easily attained in a bad cause, than in a good one. At first sight this might be regarded as something anomalous, and inconsistent with the superiority which virtue must ever claim over vice and right over wrong.—But, in reality, it is one of the wisest provisions of our being. Fraud, treachery, violence and all manner of wickedness are so inherently revolting, that those who practice them become very soon the objects of conspicuous notice, while the same amount of public or private virtue is regarded simply as what should be the rule of human conduct. Again, exalted talents, displayed in a good cause, do not bring half the notoriety of the most moderate abilities employed for the promotion of bad ends, for the reason that the former are but exerted in their natural sphere. But it must be borne in mind that notoriety is something very different from reputation or estimation. Notoriety is a word almost universally used in a bad sense—as a notorious thief or a notorious vice or crime.

This reasoning will explain why it is that so many individuals, never heard of before, are now playing a prominent part on the public stage, and that so many "great" men have been manufactured out of such very small materials. Never were times so propitious for the display of the worse side of human nature, and never were there readier men before to avail themselves of the opportunity. And hence it is that, in every State of the South, creatures, who are without character, self-respect or the respect of others, without any of the mental or moral qualifications to commend them to confidence or regard, are making themselves famous, or infamous, by indulgence in the worst passions and proclamation of the most evil and wicked designs.

Each day's advisement, for instance, of the proceedings in the various mongrel Conventions now being held, informs us how Mr. So and-so, whose name never appeared in print before, who is unknown outside of a contracted vicinage, and who is only known even there to be despised by his white neighbors, has signalized himself by some truculent scheme of oppression and degradation of his people; and, forthwith, he is pronounced a great man, an orator and a patriot, by the Radical press. Stimulated by the notoriety which he has suddenly and unexpectedly acquired, he is encouraged to further exhibitions of depravity and meanness,—greedy for fame, and unconscious of, or, perhaps, indifferent to, the fact, that what he calls fame is but the pillory of the decent popular scorn. Fortunately, the days of such miscreants will be few, and a healthy public sentiment will ultimately award them their true position and place. Even the highway robber may pride himself upon the terror which his name inspires, and feel some ambition to desperate and bold achievements, but the halter will overtake him at the last.

OUR FRIENDS of the Wilmington Journal and Star express some surprise at seeing the telegraphic announcement of the call of the Conservative Convention in the Northern papers, first,—they having received no such telegram. We assure them that a dispatch was sent to them both, in a few hours after the decision of the Executive Committee was ascertained. We are at a loss to know why they failed to receive it. It appeared in the Newbern papers of Sunday morning.

BOUTWELL'S RESOLUTION.—The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says that Boutwell's resolution, enquiring into the expediency of making one military department of all five military districts, and giving the appointment of District Commanders to Grant, has but few advocates. The Senate is decidedly opposed to the project.

SUPREME COURT.—This Tribunal meets in this city, on Monday next.

Gen. Gordon Granger will, it is reported, be named by the President as military commander of Alabama, in place of General R. Swayne, removed. The election ordered by Gen. Pope, late commander of the Third District, will take place on February 5, unless otherwise ordered.—Wash. Express, 7th.

THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.

A short time ago, the Council of State recommended the appointment of General Poindexter to fill the Judgeship made vacant by the resignation of Judge Fowle.—He was an undoubted Union man, is loyal to the government, can take the test-oath, and is qualified, by his legal attainments and high moral character, for the position. We supposed that Gen. Canby would not hesitate a moment as to his appointment. But we learn that one A. W. Tourgee, now living in Guilford County, a member elect to the Radical State Convention, has been nominated by some parties to Gen. Canby for the Judgeship, and we have heard it suggested, that the General is disposed to appoint him, in the place of Judge Fowle, provided his character and fitness are sufficiently endorsed.

We can hardly conceive how Gen. Canby could more effectually destroy his own moral influence over the people of the State, both among Republicans and Conservatives, than by the appointment of such a man as Tourgee to the high and important office of a Judge. We do not know Tourgee, but his entire history, since he has been in the State, so far as we are informed, has been destitute of any redeeming quality. We learn that his political friends, who are entitled to respect, denounce him in no unmeasured terms, and we have yet to hear the first gentleman, of any party or position, speak well of him. To have a man of doubtful reputation to fill a Judgeship in this State, would be regarded, by the people at large, as one of the most degrading and offensive indignities which could be put upon them. If the public estimate, which has been put upon Mr. Tourgee, in this State, is not wholly at fault, we do hope that Gen. Canby will not appoint him.

RICHMOND COUNTY.—Our Attention has been called to the statements made in our remarks upon Gen. Canby's order, in our issue of Tuesday last, in reference to the Sheriff of Richmond county. We are assured that our information is incorrect, and we therefore take pleasure in making the necessary correction.

We are informed by a gentleman, who is officially well acquainted with the facts, that the Sheriff of Richmond County, elected by the people, resigned the office of his own accord, for reasons purely personal to himself,—that the County Court, after full enquiry, failed to appoint his successor, for the reason that it could find no man capable to fill the office, who could give the bond and would take the test oath. Some time elapsed before the Post Commander at Fayetteville, in whose jurisdiction Richmond county was, attempted to supply the vacancy, and not until he was importuned by the citizens of Richmond to do so. He sent an officer to enquire into the facts, who reported that no native citizen could be found to fill the office, and that the people desired the appointment of the Freedmen's Bureau Commissioner, who intended to become a resident and citizen of the county. Upon these statements, the Post Commander appointed Capt. McFarland, who gave the bond required, and entered upon his duties as Sheriff. Our informant assures us that his information is positive, that Capt. McFarland has given general, if not universal, satisfaction in the office of Sheriff, and he thinks it would be a misfortune to have any change, at least at present.

A brief article in the same issue, from the Wadesboro' Argus, is calculated to make a wrong impression as to the action of the officer at Fayetteville referred to. The general reputation of Col. Cogswell, the late Commander of Fayetteville Post, for promptness and a desire to do strict justice to all parties in the execution of his duty, warrants us in saying that no improper motive or act can be attributed to him in the matter referred to by the Argus.

"Still, with all the absurdities of Virginia aristocracy, there is mingled an ingredient that is of practical use to Virginia, and no State would be more benefitted by an importation of it than North Carolina. Never did two States, lying side by side, differ more widely than North Carolina and Virginia. Here every man and woman, white and black, speaks always in praise of his State. The State is defended by every one, on all occasions, against every imputation. Not stopping at this, all go on to tell of her virtues, of her distinguished statesmen, of her internal improvements, and hosts are ready, at any hour, to cover her noted graves with the choicest flowers."

We make the foregoing extract from one of "Itinerant's" recent letters. While we have always thought that our people were not so alive to the full requirements of a just State pride as they might have been, they have not been so remiss, in this particular, by any means, as our friend "Itinerant" supposes. But both with respect to Virginia and North Carolina, his observations apply more appropriately to the past.

There was a time, when every man and woman, in both States, spoke always in their praise and did all that they could to vindicate their honor and promote their interests. They loved to tell of their deeds of revolutionary emprise, and to dwell upon the catalogue of great names that had illustrated their annals. They delighted to honor their living statesmen. They carefully guarded the reputation of their mother and were proud of the high stand which she held in the niche of history.

But all this, if not reversed, has been sadly modified and changed. We now have, according to the Radical theory, no State to love. We are ordered to blot out our Statehood, to obliterate all the glorious and fond associations of the past, to become a new people—and such a people,—and to repudiate the time honored Constitution under which we have lived. And we have degenerate sons of the State, in our own midst, who connive at the sacrilege. It was never, until these latter and evil days, that North Carolina or Virginia nursed in grates and matricides.

The year 1868 has begun in Chicago. The Tribune says: "Another year has flown into the bosom of the eternities, and though just gone out of sight is even now sinking into the profundities of oblivion."

ROWAN AND DAVIE.—MR. SHAVER.—The Old North State makes the following remarks upon the case, alluded to by us, on yesterday, wherein Mr. J. M. McCubbins, universally conceded to have been elected to the Convention from Rowan and Davie, has been displaced and the name of Isaac N. Shaver substituted. It will be remembered that we classed Mr. S. as a Radical. It would appear, from the observations of our cotemporary, that we have been misinformed, and we therefore crave that gentleman's pardon:

"On what grounds this was done we have no means of knowing. It may be that some of the ballots cast for Mr. McCubbins were informal in not having his name upon them written in full as the law directed, and that, therefore, they were thrown out. However that may be, it is a matter of not little consequence so far as it affects the interests of the people of the State, or of this district. The Convention is overwhelmingly Radical anyway, so that the influence of one conservative man would scarcely have been felt. And, besides, Mr. Shaver is understood to agree politically with Mr. McCubbins, for whom, as well as Messrs. Robbins and Johnson, he voted. Yet, nevertheless, the people of the District were entitled to be represented in the convention by the man of their choice, and are entitled to an explanation. Whether Mr. Shaver will consent to serve under the circumstances we have no means of knowing."

HARD TIMES.

The following items, collected from different sections of the country, show the depression that prevails in nearly every branch of business. It is difficult to see where we can look for an improvement.—Indeed, it is probable that the condition of the country will be worse before it is better.

The Memphis Avalanche says there are twenty thousand starving negroes in that city.

The wages of the factory operatives of Milltown, North Stonington, Connecticut, were cut down twenty per cent. on the 1st inst.

Notice has been given the operatives of several of the Fall River cotton mills that there will be a reduction from 10 to 18 per cent. in their wages on and after January 1st.

The Fond du Lac (Wisconsin) Commonwealth says that the Chicago and Northwestern railroad have reduced the wages of all laborers in their employ from $4.75 to $3.25 per day. They have also reduced the number of their section hands one-half.

The New York Times learns through correspondents in various parts of the Southern States that very considerable numbers of people are moving away from there to the North, and still larger numbers are preparing to move away in the spring. The idea has taken firm possession of the Southern mind that their section is destined to ruin, poverty, and negro supremacy in the future, and they complain that their hopes of better times have at last left them. It is the fear of the blacks, however, that most troubles them.

More than 250 families in Trenton, N. J., are supported by charity, now that the factories have stopped, and it is almost as bad in other manufacturing places.

In the Pittsburg nail mills the employees have accepted a reduction of 16½ per cent.

The employees on the Chicago and Great Eastern railroad have struck again for their back pay, and will allow only engines with a single mail car to be run.

The 1,400 operatives in Hoyle's carpet factory, at New York, struck on Monday (30th.) in consequence of a reduction of 10 per cent. in their wages.

Mr. Abbott Lawrence, of Boston, recently stated to a gentleman in Washington, that a manufacturing company, in which they were both interested, was losing $1,000 per day. Other corporations are losing in the same ratio. This state of things manifestly cannot long continue. These corporations must stop work. What then? One hundred thousand people will be thrown out of employment in Massachusetts alone, 20,000 in New Hampshire, 10,000 in Maine, and 30,000 in Connecticut and Rhode Island. In all 160,000 persons, male and female, old and young.—National Intelligencer.

ARRIVAL OF HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The steamship Cuba, which has been expected for two or three days, arrived last evening at 7 o'clock, from Baltimore via Havana, bringing among her passengers ex President Davis and Mrs. Davis, who are on their way to the home of Mr. Davis' brother in Mississippi.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and the lateness of the hour at which the former arrived, there were many of his friends who went to greet him, and to welcome him once more to a city which he visits now for the first time for many years, and where he has friends as true, as devoted, and as warm hearted as any man ever had anywhere. This spontaneous tribute of affection and respect was rendered to Mr. Davis not merely from common sympathy and common suffering in a cause in which all were involved—but from a sincere appreciation by his friends of the grand qualities that have ever marked Mr. Davis as a statesman of the first order, a soldier of unsurpassed gallantry, a gentleman in every relation of life, and a man, whose record in all the respects of purity and honor will stand equal to that of any other who has lived in this or any other age. On behalf of his thousands of friends in this city, we extend to Mr. Davis a welcome to our homes and our hearts.—N. O. Crescent, 1st.

RECONSTRUCTION IN LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 6.

The following order has just been promulgated:

"HEADQ'RS 5TH MILITARY DISTRICT,
New Orleans, Jan. 1, 1868.

General Orders No. 1.

Applications have been made at these headquarters implying the existence of an arbitrary authority in the commanding General touching purely civil controversies. One petitioner solicits this action, another that, and each refers to some special consideration of grace or favor, which he supposes to exist, and which should influence this Department. The number of such applications, and the waste of time they involve, make it necessary to declare that the administration of civil justice appertains to the regular courts. The rights of litigants do not depend on the views of the General.—They are to be adjudged and settled according to the laws. Arbitrary power, such as he has been urged to assume, has no existence here. It is not found in the laws of Louisiana or Texas. It cannot be derived from any act or acts of Congress. It is restrained by a Constitution, and prohibited from action in many particulars.

The Major-General commanding takes occasion to repeat that, while disclaiming judicial functions in civil cases, he can suffer no forcible resistance to the execution of processes of the Courts.

By command of Maj. Gen. HANCOCK:
L. HARTSUFF, A. A. G."

THE
ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF HARTFORD.
ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN NORTH CAROLINA $33,000.
Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT FOR THE STATE OF
NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,
IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under Official Endorsement:
1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.
2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.
3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, at more than three times the average, and more than one-thirteenth of all.
4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.
5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]
6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.
7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.
It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.
The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance, commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a certain provision for those depending upon him.
The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year and pays her members the
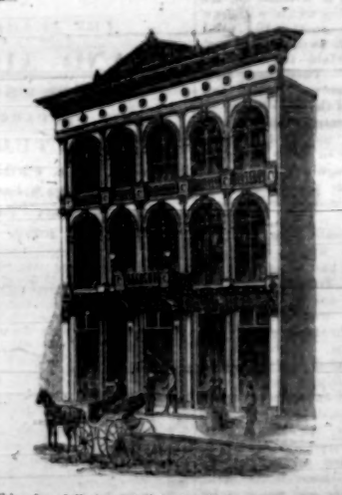
of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.
The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured, and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."
Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $160,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.
The ÆTNA has over
$1,000,000
ABOVE LIABILITIES.
THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.
HAS 45,000 MEMBERS.


Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 13th of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Clayed Cuba Molasses,—a large importation direct from Cardenas: O. G. Parsley & Co., Wilmington.

D. W. Courts, Esq., of Rockingham, formerly Treasurer of the State, has been associated with Gen. J. D. Imboden, of Virginia, in a General Land Agency for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. We invite attention to their Card in another column, from which it will be seen that they have every facility for the enterprize in which they have engaged. The high character of all the gentlemen concerned is a sufficient guarantee of their responsibility.

Prime Factory Cheese: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Apple Brandy, Rye Whiskey, Fresh Oysters: R. K. Ferrell, Hargett Street.

Hardware Trade for 1868: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

DIRECT TRADE.—Read the advertisement of A. M. McPherson, Reg't Agent, in south column. The first class British Ship Ada will load for Liverpool, at Norfolk, about the 22nd, and Mr. McP. will pay prompt attention to all applications for freight or passage. The freight on corn is only 9 pence per bushel and ½ of a penny on cotton.—Liberal cash advances on produce will be made and no commissions charged for forwarding. This certainly offers great advantages to our farmers and others.

DRAMATIC.—By a private letter from Mr. Sargent, from Wilmington, we learn that he contemplates, if he can make the necessary arrangements, commencing a season in this city on Monday, the 20th, with his Company. The Wilmington papers are loud in their praises of the Troupe.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.—At no time, since the close of the war, have there been so many idle Freedmen on our streets, as at present. The City, for several days past, has been literally thronged with them, and most of them have a thriftless and ragged appearance. This is an evil which, we fear, is destined greatly to increase now that so many of the sources of employment are dried up.

FINE TOBACCO.—We are indebted to those enterprising gentlemen, Messrs. R. F. Morris & Son, Durham's, for a bag of their superb Spanish-flavored Smoking Tobacco. It has no superior anywhere, and we cannot think of enjoying it ourselves, without commending it to all lovers of a good smoke. Send in your orders to Morris & Co.

"Hoods" (with about twenty others,) is a candidate for Doorkeeper of the mongrel Convention. "Sail-a-way all!"

PROGRESS OFFICE.—We learn that the materials of the Progress office, in this city, were sold on Monday last, and were bid off for $600, at six months credit, by several of our journeymen printers, who, it is understood, speak of reviving the paper. The low condition of the newspaper press, and its general unprofitableness in this State, cannot be better demonstrated, than has been by this sale. A power press, with fonts of non-pareil and bourgeois type, with other necessary appendages, sufficient to print a daily and weekly paper, was bid off at $600, at six months credit! It is as cheap as dirt still yet, & the times continue as at present, without extraordinary effort, it may turn out to be a dear bargain. We, however, wish our young friends every possible success in their enterprise.

P. S.—Since the foregoing was written, we learn that the publication of the Progress will be resumed, by the gentlemen who purchased it, on Tuesday next. Their exchanges will please take notice. Again we wish our young friends success.

The long uncertainty respecting the fate of Dr. Livingstone has at length ceased.—The Doctor is alive and well, and may now end with special interest thousands of sympathizing obituaries which the papers of the civilized world have devoted to them.—Times.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN RICHMOND COUNTY.

According to previous appointment quite a respectable number of citizens assembled at Spring Hill, Richmond county, N. C., on Saturday, the 28th ult. Mr. M. W. McNair was called to the chair, and Robert A. Johnson was requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman, after having explained the object of the meeting, appointed Messrs. Milton McIntosh, Lauchlin McNeill, Arch'd Johnson, D. W. Livingston and J. M. Johnson as a Committee to draft resolutions.—The Committee, after consultation, presented the following resolutions, which were separately and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The organization of a Conservative party in North Carolina is a necessity; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we recognise the duty to defend law and order, and to support, cheerfully, all constitutional measures of the United States government.

Resolved, 2d, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint an Executive Committee for Richmond County, consisting of three members from each precinct, whose duty it shall be to organize a Conservative party in this County, and to take the necessary steps for the appointment of delegates to represent said party in the Conservative Convention, to be held in the City of Raleigh.

Resolved 3rd, That the Chairman have until the 10th of January next to make the appointments.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

ROB'T. A. JOHNSON, Sec.

"BY ORDER OF GENERAL GRANT."—Grant's name seems to have a very soothing effect upon certain editors of the Radical persuasion. When Sheridan and Sickles were removed by the President, without the formal announcement, "by order of General Grant," there were great wailings and gnashing of teeth, especially among the "loyal" papers at the South. But now Pope and Ord fall, and there is little grief and no indignation manifested. Had the order displacing these officers proceeded immediately from the President, there would be a storm raised about his ears; but as it issues "by command" of the Secretary of War, ad interim, it is all right. Even Holden's radical North Carolina Standard, in announcing these latest removals, says: "We presume there are good reasons for these changes." Verily, that there are, and no presumption in the case at all. If a series of tyrannical acts of the most outrageous character, on the part of these commanders, are not "good reasons," where shall they be found?

But the good reason for the change in the tone of the Standard, and other sheets of the same party, is found in the fact that Grant professes to do the deed, instead of Johnson. What is vice in the latter is virtue in the former; and what was sufficient to raise the cry of impeachment against the one, is only sufficient to raise the presumption of "good reasons" in behalf of the other. —Southern Opinion.

CONFEDERATE OFFICERS.—Here in Charlotte we have living three General officers who did as much as any others for the cause of the South. Maj. Gen. D. H. Hill rose from a Colonel to one of the highest commands in the army, and now publishes one of the most popular Magazines in the country. Brig. Gen. R. D. Johnston went into the war as a Lieutenant in 1861, and came out as a Brigadier General—he fought bravely all through the war, and was severely wounded in the head and neck on three different occasions. Gen. Rufus Barringer went in as a Captain and was promoted to a Brigadier General of Cavalry—he, too, did good service and was wounded—both are practising law in Charlotte—but you never see their names or that of any other North Carolinian in the Virginia papers or in the numbug histories gotten up in Virginia. We don't like such treatment.

Besides the three General officers named above, we have living here Col. H. C. Jones of the 57th, N. C. Regiment, Col. W. Lee Davidson of the 7th., Col. E. A. Osborne of the 4th., Col. Z. B. Vance (ex-Gov. of N. C.,) of the 26th., Col. J. E. Brown of the 42nd., Maj. Jas. Harris of the 7th., and Maj. M. D. L. McLeod of the 1st. N. C. Cavalry—all of whom fought through the war and did gallant service—but those who get up lists of gallant officers never heard of them, of course.

We intend soon to publish a list of Confederate officers of every grade now in this city.—Western Democrat.

ARMED NEGROES IN THE SOUTH.—Nine out of every ten of the negroes to be seen daily on our streets are "armed and equipped" as the Radicals direct. Some have huge bludgeons, some immense knives, some pistols of every pattern, while by far the larger number carry at a "shoulder," or in a careless or indifferent manner, the regular Government musket, and many of them with a fixed bayonet!—Why the negroes are thus armed the whites know not. There is certainly no cause for these hostile acts on the part of the law-abiding whites. These are carried about with the negroes wherever they go, night and day. It is a common occurrence to hear firing at all hours of the night in all parts of the city. Bullets have entered several private residences within the past few days, going in close proximity to the sleeping inmates. Notwithstanding all such positive violations of law, no arrests have been made, either by the military or civil authorities, so far as we have been able to learn. Such is Radical rule and ruin in Alabama.—Montgomery Mail.

THE NEGRO JURY AND OFFICE-HOLDING BILL.—There is some speculation among members of Congress as to the exact status of the bill striking the word "white" from the charters and laws of this city and Georgetown. It was passed and sent to the President prior to the recess, and when the adjournment took place he had yet two days for its consideration. Some members think the bill now dead, but others hold that it will be a law if the Executive does not act upon it to-day or to-morrow. It is known that Mr. Johnson prepared a veto for the measure, but it is believed that he will now treat the bill as having died by reason of the recess.—Wash. Express, 7th.

Alanson Palmer, who used to roll through the streets of Buffalo in his coach and four, was sentenced to four months in the poor-house recently for stealing a shirt.

PRESENTATION OF A GOLD MEDAL TO THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Jan 8, P. M.

A gold medal, valued at $400, was presented to the President, to-day, by a committee from Philadelphia. The medal is three inches in diameter. On one side is an excellent likeness of the President, with the date of his birth and inauguration as President. On the reverse is the following inscription: "With courage and fidelity he defended the Constitution, and by justice and magnanimity restored the alienated states."

The presentation address was by Col. Hagner. The President responded, returning his thanks to the Club, and trusting that their confidence in him had not been misplaced. In conclusion, he pledged himself that his future course should be as the past, in his efforts to maintain and uphold the Constitution; and assuring the Committee that the presentation was peculiarly gratifying to him at this time, and that he would cherish it until the last hour of his life.

The President then took each member of the Committee by the hand, and some time was passed in conversation, before they withdrew.

A committee of citizens of New York and Connecticut presented the President with a cane, made from the Charter oak.

Revenue to-day $345,000.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, P. M.

House.—The Committee on Foreign Affairs reported a resolution, requesting the President to intercede with Queen Victoria for Father McMahan's release. The report maintains the innocence of McMahan. The Committee referred a couple of other names with the resolution, as the cases were homogeneous.

The Senate cotton tax bill was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Missouri election case came up, occupying several hours when Van Horn was declared entitled to his seat.

Senate.—The Finance Committee was instructed to enquire into the expediency of affixing a penalty when government officers disburse money without legal authority.

Mr. Conness said that the resolution aimed at those whom the Senate rejected as unfit for positions, but who were afterwards sent on special missions, to do no body knew what, and paid from the public fund.

The resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill to vacate the present illegal and unauthorized governments in the Southern States, and provide provisional governments until reconstructed, was laid over.

The President was called on for information whether the bill for abolishing white in the District laws and ordinances was considered as law by the Executive.

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death, for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assets than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. TO ONE IN HEAVEN.

[GEORGE D. PRENTICE—himself one of the most gifted of the American bards—thinks that no living poet can surpass the gracefulness and beauty of the following lines from the muse of AMELIA. They are exceedingly beautiful:]

Pale star, that with thy soft, and light
Came out upon my bridal eve,
I have a song to sing to-night,
Before thou tak'st thy mournful leave.
Since then so softly time has stirr'd
That months have almost seemed like hours,
And I am like a little bird,
That's slept too long among the flowers,
And, waking, sits with wayless wing,
Soft singing 'mid the shades of even;
But, oh, with sadder heart I sing—
I sing of one who dwells in Heaven.

The winds are soft, the clouds are few,
And tenderest thought my heart beguiles,
As floating up through mist and dew
The pale, young moon comes out and smiles;
And to the green resounding shore
In silvery troops the ripples crowd,
Till all the ocean, dimpled o'er,
Lifts up its voice and laughs aloud;
And star on star, all soft and calm,
Floats up yon arch serenely blue;
And, lost to earth and steeped in balm,
My spirit floats in ether, too.

Loved one! though lost to human sight,
I feel thy spirit lingering near,
As softly as I feel the light
That trembles through the atmosphere;
As in some temple's holy shade
Though mute the hymn and hush'd the prayer,
A solemn awe the soul pervades,
Which tells that worship has been there—
A breath of incense, left alone
Where many a censer swung around,
Will thrill the wanderer like a tone
Who treads on consecrated ground.

I know thy soul, from worlds of bliss
Yet stoops a while to dwell with me,
Hath caught the prayer I breathed in this
That I at last might dwell with thee.
I hear a murmur from the seas,
That thrills me like the spirit's sighs;
I hear a voice on every breeze,
That makes to mine its low replies—
A voice all low and sweet like thine;
It gives an answer to my prayer,
And brings my soul from Heaven a sign
That I shall know and meet thee there.

I'll know thee there by that sweet face,
Round which a tender halo plays,
Still touched with that expressive grace
That made thee lovely all thy days;
By that sweet smile that o'er it shed
A beauty like the light of even,
Whose soft expression never fled—
Even when its soul had flown to Heaven;
I'll know thee by the starry crown
That glitters in thy raven hair;
Oh! by those blessed signs alone
I'll know thee there—I'll know thee there.

For oh! thine eyes, within whose sphere
The sweets of youth and beauty met,
That swam in love and softness here,
Must swim in love and softness yet.
For oh! its dark and liquid beams,
Though saddened by a thousand sighs,
Were holier than the light that streams
Down from the gates of Paradise.
Were bright and radiant like the morn,
Yet soft and dewy as the eve,
Too sad for eyes where smiles are born,
Too young for eyes that learn to grieve.

I wonder if this cool, sweet breeze
Hath touched thy lips and fann'd thy brow,
For all my spirit hears and sees
Recalls thee to my memory now;
For every hour we breathe apart
Will but increase, if that can be,
The love that fills this little heart,
Already filled so full of thee.
Yet many a tear these eyes must weep,
And many a sin must be forgiven,
Ere those pale lids shall sink to sleep,
Ere thou and I shall meet in Heaven.

Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes, and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embellished in romance or poetry, which is a real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many day reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, combining all the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and scientific history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and full description of the work.

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark, "Old Gwerrin's," the less ancient "Stuntinger's," and the present office-building of the American Express Company, on the Southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is attributable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 80 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-seven feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment. The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify this solid investment, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although the Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum assured by it up to the present date approaches 100 000 000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless expand to five million dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and most satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the fact that it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. Its mode of applying dividends so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, is unequalled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal thus liberally with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the thriftiness of its management. The percentage of its "total loss ratio" is less than that of any other Company. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to $25,000, and issues all policies are, however, comparatively new, and it is therefore carrying but few impaired lives. Its percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, establish this fact. The Equitable is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and taking institution of its age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. These rates have been carefully deduced from American experience, and will be more accurate and satisfactory than those hitherto used, which were based upon English statistics. The Mutual, Equitable, Washington, Widows and Orphans, Standard, and one or two other companies, have entered into this desirable arrangement. We learn also that those companies have decided to establish a system by which their rejections and other points relating to medical examination and statistics, will be made known to each other and mutual benefit derived. The contribution plan of dividend has been adopted by the companies named.

There are many other points in the insurance business conducted upon the general principles can unite for mutual aid and advantage, and preserve their individual idiosyncrasies and independence in all other respects. The Equitable is the leading idea exerting the influence which cannot fail to be attended with favorable results.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 21, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th, of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and a 1 previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th day of April, 1865, for the 18th day of May, 186 . .

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and designated by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognising or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and no soon as retained will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeitures or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 29, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th, and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed; to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold a [illegible] of their courts, for the purpose of [illegible] such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and the salaries now paid the judges should be adequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [illegible] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st day of March, 1868.
